Line Realizes 82,000,000 From Their Sale-General Strike of Railroad Telegraphers is Threatened.

It seems that as a result of the blg rain storms which have occurred in different parts of the country the railroads have been the principal individual sufferers. In Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi millions of dollars have been lost by the railroad companies in actual property damage, while the losses resulting from interruption of traffic will bring the total up to figures representing enormous sums of money. Texas seems now to be suffering most in this respect, word from Dallas this afternoon announcing that torrents of rain have been falling today all over Texas. It is estimated that fully an inch fell at Dallas between 11 and 11:30 a. m. Crops are in such bad shape that if the rain continues a week longer a general replanting of corn and cotton will be necessary in many localities, Much of the wheat will be ruined by rust. More washouts are reported on the railroads and they will be heavy losers from the damage indicted by in-

NORTHERN PACIFIC LANDS.

About Two Million Dollars Revenue Realized from this Source.

Over 1,000,000 acres of rich farm land have been sold by the Northern Paci-fic railroad within the last four months in the States of Minnesota, North Da-kota and Washington, almost one-half of the land sold lying within the last named State. President Mellen of that company, who makes this statement, does not care to give the amounts received for these lands, but as the average price of land in that region is from $1.50 to $2.50 an acre, the Northern Pacific company's treasury has reachily been enclosed by scorething. probably been enriched by something

The report that all the remnants of land in Minnesota formerly owned by this road had been sold to a St. Paul syndicate, was also confirmed by President Mellen. These lands consisted mostly of timber and swamp lands and were sold in order to escape the pay-ment of taxes and because they could not be handled by the road to the same advantage as by a syndicate. The amount received for this sale is esti-

Money Being Raised in Chicago to Fight the Southern Railroad.

A committee representing the striking Southern operators has been in Chicago several days conferring with prominent members of the Order of Railway Telebesessessesses graphers regarding sympathetic action to help the Southerners win. A number of secret meetings have been held. At these conferences the question of a sympathetic strike has been received warmly. Incidentally the operators have been asked to contribute to the support of the men on the Southern road now out, and yesterday if was said that a large sum would be obtained in Chicago for the purpose. According to a reported plan a sympathetic strike may be ordered on all important rail-way systems east of the Mississippi

The committee representing the strikers will, it is said, also visit St. Louis, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and other important railroad centers to work up similar sentiment for the Southern men. Already, it is said, the telegraph operators on the Baltimore & Ohio, men. Members of the order of railway tele-graphers say this is the first strike of importance ever authorized by the or-der, and the members are determined that it shall succeed, as the life or death of the organization depends up-on the result. More than 47,000 rail-way telegraphers in the United States are members of the order.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Following its custom the Western s sending out much printed advertisng matter this spring.

The remains of the late B. R. Watson were shipped to Omaha over the West-ern and Burlington this afternoon.

J. M. Crawley has been appointed general freight agent for the Rio Grande Western at San Francisco. John Fusz, an Oregon Short Line engineer, is suffering from appendicitis at St. Mark's hospital, where he will undergo an operation. J. E. Hogan, formerly dispatcher's clerk for the Oregon Short Line at Pocatello, has gone to San Francisco, where he has secured a position in the office of the general superintendent of the Santa Fe.

Railroad traffic in Texas is again badly interrupted by washouts. Brazos river is rising and crops in the lowlands are in a deplorable condition. Heavy windstorms and hallstorms have done much damage at various points.

Twenty-two hundred employes of the New York Central railroad shops and yards went out on strike at Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday morning. An increase in wages and the reinstatement of men alelged to have been unjustly discharged is demanded by the men. It is asserted by some Denver news-papers (and the fact that such a statement is made should arouse sympathy for them in their lack of correct in-formation) that the general offices of the Rlo Grande Western are to be re-moved to Denver. "It will be a long time in Ireland," etc. Hong Siing of Chicago, passenger agent of the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, Southern Pacific, Occi-dental & Oriental Steamship company, Pacific Mail Steamship company and other transportation companies, is visiting Salt Lake and is being shown around town under the chaperonage of D. S. Taggart and R. L. Darling.

J. A. Munroe, general freight traffic manager of the Union Pacific, was at the Knutsford last night. He empha-tically states that there is absolutely no truth in the report that a pool exists upon wool business between the Ore-gon Short Line and Union Pacific. The Ogden gateway, he asserts, is open to f "gates ajar," as it were,

On and after Sunday, April 29th, the Chicago special on the Burlington will leave Denver at 4 p. m. The change is even larger than on the first night of made in response to a very general de mand for a fast afternoon train from Denver to the East. The new hour of leparture is better than the present one in many ways. It means that one can make a 1,000 mile journey from Denver to Chicago or St. Louis with the oss of but one business day. It means, oo, that passengers can leave practically any point in eastern Colorado at a convenient hour and arrive at Denver in plenty of time to connect with the Chicago special. The greatest advantage, however, is that the through San Francisco-Chicago sleeping car, via the Southern Pacific, Rio Grande Western, Denver & Rio Grande and Burlington railroads will not fail to make connections at Denver.

A Washington dispatch of yesterday says that a vote was taken in the interstate commerce commission of the on the question of rep ing the bill enlarging the powers of the interstate commerce commission, which resulted in a tie of four to four. There were three absentees and of these Senators Aldrich and Chilton were paired, the latter for and the former against the bill. Senator Lindsay, the other absentee, was not paired, and the chairman was authorized to consult him and then to act accordingly. If, therefore, Mr. Lindsay casts his vote in favor of reporting the bill it will be put ing the bill enlarging the powers of the fore, Mr. Lindsay casts his vote in favor of reporting the bill it will be put in, otherwise it will not be reported. The four senators who voted for the bill were Messrs. Cullom, Chandler, Allen and Tillman, and those who cast their votes in the negative were Messrs. Gear, Elkins, Wolcott and Kean.

J. J. Hill of St. Paul, president the Great Northern railway; E. P. Rip-ley of the Santa Fe, President Burt of the Union Pacific, C. P. Huntington and J. C. Stubbs of the Southern Pa-cific and Canadian Pacific officials have joined in a call for a conference to be held in San Francisco May 30th, for the purpose of considering the trans-pacific traffic situation. An effort is to be made to bring about some amic-able understanding between the ocean carriers regarding rates and a division of the growing traffic across the Pacific, and it is believed that the meeting will furnish the means of either bringing the interested lines into a trans-Pacific traffic association or accomplishing at ironclad agreement looking to the ad-vancement and maintenance of rates. In any event, a big advance in both freight and passenger rates across the Pacific is expected to result from the approaching conference.

AMUSEMENTS.

CARRAMANAMANAMANA

The big and brilliant audience at the Grand last night was a rare tribute to the popularity of Harry Corson Clarke. His comedy, "What Happened to Jones," was on its seventeenth rendithe production last year. The laughter and applause were as hearty as ever before, and though all Mr. Clarke's old friends were out in force, one might have supposed, from the way the audience took all the points, that Jones' numerous adventures were being por-trayed for the first time. Mr. Clarke is all his own self again. Recailing his pale face and attenuated, figure last year, it is more than a pleasure to see him again in the full flush of health and in the possession of the rare comedy talents which gave him his first strong hold on the esteem of our theater goers. He was in a rollicking mood last night, and played the resourceful drummer in excellent fashion, keeping the house in an uproar from beginning to end. His company is a good one all round, though probably lacking in some of the individual points when compared with the first year's organization. most popular member of the support was Miss Georgia Cooper, whose singing was heartily applauded. The other ladies played brightly and capably and Miss Marshall's Swedish girl drew the usual laughter. The men were all aceptable, Mr. Mark's professor leading the others. The same bill goes tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night and without doubt the excellent record of the opening will be kept up.

Those who sat close enough to the stage last night, heard Mr. Clarke utter a very audible "home again" under his breath, as he made his first entrance. "You have no idea," he said, after the performance, "how good it seems to be in Salt Lake again and be in possession of my old health and strength. Since I was last here I have been in the hands of twenty-four doctors and spent told that my heart, lungs and liver were all right, but that there was something the matter with my stomach that buffled them all. They sent me back to the Pacific coast seven months ago to die. When I got in San Francisco I weighed just $4 pounds, and my wife had given me up. It was at that time I began to reason with myself, that if my stomach needed building up why not treat myself as they would diet and for seven months I have had thing else except some taffy made of New Orleans molasses. I began to mend at once and today I weigh 137 pounds. 'A queer diet,' you will say, but it is the only thing that ever passes my lips, day or night. I carry a negro my lips, day or night. I carry a negro cook with me, and a little heating apparatus that I keep in the dressing rooms and on the cars. I drink a gallon of milk a day, sometimes a gallon and a half. My eastern doctors have written me asking me to appear before a medical clinic in New York as a wonderful instance, and I shall probably do so. This is the last season of What so. This is the last season of 'What Happened to Jones,' Next year I shall be out in my new play, "What did be out in my new play, "What did Tompkins Do?" and I have already booked it solidly up to March, 1901."
Mr. Clarke's season closes in Denver, and he and his wife will then proceed eastward for their summer vacation.

RUNAWAY ON STATE STREET Mrs. W. D. Palmer of Granger Meets with a Serious Accident.

A lively runaway occurred on State street between Fourth and Fifth South. shortly before noon today, which came near ending the life of Mrs. W. D. Palmer, a resident of Granger, Mrs. Palmer accompanied her husband to town today, and at the time of the accident were on their way home. They were riding in a light buggy and at the water trough on State and Fourth South streets Mr. Palmer got out to give the horse, a highly spirited animal, a drink, leaving his wife in the buggy. Palmer undid the check strap and is also said to have removed the horse's bridle. The arrival stepped up to the trough and in animal stepped up to the trough and in bending its neck its head came in contact with the strong flow of water from the faucet. This scared the horse and the next moment it started off at a lively gait down State street. Between Fourth and Fifth South the anima made for the west sidewalk and with one bound cleared the ditch. The buggy swayed to one side and Mrs. Pal-mer fell out head first onto the hard cement sidewalk. A few feet farther south the wheels of the vehicle struck a fence post, smashing the shafts and front wheels to pieces. The horse, nowever, continued on south, and was soon lost to view. Mrs. Palmer was picked up and carried lato the house of a col-ored lady named Mrs. Mattle Steed. Both sides of the head were badly cut and bled profusely. She also com-plained of severe pains in her left side. A physician was sent for and the poor oman's injuries attended to. accounts she was doing as well as could looked for by the doctor. Eye witness. es of the accident said it was a won-der that Mrs. Palmer was not killed outright.

Dr. Cornelius R. A stay of judgment for thirty days was granted the defendant in order that he might prepare a bill of exceptions and perfect an appeal to the Supreme court Snowden's bond in the meantime was increased from $1,000 to $1,500, which expects to be able to furnish

In his affidavit, Brown says that at the preliminary hearing of the defend-ant, had before Justice Kroeger last October, he, Attorney V. Rapp and Judge C. B. The objection was overruled, and Rapp's testimony went to the jury. Brown, who is now in to the jury. MISS THE "NEWS." Change of Train Service Not Appreciated by Citizens of Nephi. [SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS"]

Nephl, April 27.-The new train service that has been inaugurated by the Oregon Short Line is not appreciated by the people here. On the contrary if greatly regretted for several reasons First of all, before the change was made they got their Deserte Evening News and other mail each night at 8:40. This gave them plenty of time to read what had been going on throughout the world during the day as chronicled in the columns of the "News," and also to look over their letters and other mail matter in the event that they desired Under the change the train, although scheduled to reach Nephi at 10:05, does not arrive here now until 10:40 p. m., which is entirely too late to admit of the privileges enjoyed under the old schedule. It may be that the company was induced to make the change for the benefit of some of the sparsely set-tled counties of the extreme south, but certainly if that is the case, it has over-looked the interests of very many more people between Nephi and Salt Lake. One prominent citizen of Utah county said yesterday that it would be a money losing proposition for the Short Line to continue the present arrangement, in that many people who go to Sait Lake in the morning are compelled to return home over the Rio Grande in the avening. This believe the section the evening. This being the case he is under the impression that the old time card ought to be reinstated.
